Important Circular

Office of Controller General of Defence Accounts

An Important Meeting of 55th Steering Committee of III level was held on 19.11.2018 in HQrs. office under the Chairmanship of Sr. Jt. CGDA(AN).

The staff side pointed out that DAD representatives do not participate in high power Committee in some of the states/stations (now been changed to Central Govt. Employees Welfare Coordination Committee).

2. Central Govt. being the largest single employer in the country, bears the major responsibility of looking after the welfare of large number of employees spread all over the country. Outside Delhi at a place where there are 5 Central Govt. offices and the total number of employees is not less than 1000, Central Govt. Employee's Welfare Co-ordination Committee (CGEWCC) has been formed under the aegis of Deptt. of Personnel and Training. These Committees are responsible for coordinating the welfare activities of Central Govt. employees serving within their jurisdiction. At present, there are 41, such coordination committee located in different parts of the country under the chairmanship of the senior most officer of the station.
3. In order to facilitate welfare of the employees of our Department, it is requested to ensure DAD participation in the Central Govt. Employees Welfare Co-ordination Committee (CGEWCC) of the stations/states within your jurisdiction as the case may be, and furnish confirmation in this regard.

This issues with the approval of Sr. Jt. CGDA(AN).
