With reference to the subject grievance, the matter regarding stamped receipt for releasing payment through ECS/DBT to the individuals bank account and to the Public Fund Account of the unit concerned on a/c of claims of Pay and allowances, Medical, and CEA claims of the Defence Civilians has been examined at appropriate level and following has been approved by the competent authority:

Exception below Rule 92(1) of Central Government Account, Receipts and Payment Rules states that “In cases payment credited directly to the bank account for the cheque to them is to be watched by the Drawing and Disbursing Officers and confirmation made to Pay and Accounts office. No formal Quittance is to be obtained from the bank or officers/staff”. As such stamped receipt may not be insisted upon for claims on a/c of Pay and allowances, Medical, and CEA claims of the Defence Civilians is made through ECS.
